

DOWN MEMORY LANE

Mrs. Ruth (Hall) Smith has supplied the picture for this week's trip Down Memory Lane. It's the old Shaw School in 1914, then located seven miles north of Greenfield on Seybert Rd. (Hwy. H). Although it has been many years since the building housed students of "The Three R's" it still is in use, enlarged and remodeled and serving as a home in Greenfield, now occupied by Leon Clabough.

Third row: Lela Glenn, Blossom Farmer, Ruth Duncan, Letha Glenn, Edgar Duncan, Homer Murdock, Charles Glenn.
