

The Information of Solomon Wood taken before me this 1st. day of September 1769

Who being upon Oath says that he knows Robert Horton and James Rawlings who are both Common Thieves, says that yesterday Morning the said Robert Horton and this Informant stole Some Carpenter's Tools out of a Wash house in Hoxton which they got into by breaking a Pane of Glass and opening the Window, that the said Carpenter's Tools are now his near the Tenter Ground by Moorsfields, says that on Monday Morning last the Said Robert Horton and this Informant stole a Quantity of Linen out of a house in Twister's Alley Bunhill Row which was sold at Salt Peter Bank by one Ann Kelly for eleven Shillings of which the Said Ann Kelly had one Shilling for her Trouble and the Remainder was equally divided between this Informant & the said Robert Horton says that one Morning last Week the said Robert Horton and this Informant stole a great Coat out of a Carpenters Shop in Hoxton which was first pawned by the said Robert Horton in Feather Stone Buildings but was afterwards redeemed & worn by the Said Robert Horton & was pawned again last Night as this Informant verily believes by the said Robert Horton , says that Sunday Morning was Sevenight the said Robert Horton and this Informant stole a great Quantity of Shirts Aprons & other Linen & a Hat & 4 Tea Spoons & a Pair of Buckles from a house at Islington , that the said Buckles are in Pawn at Mrs. Hubbard's in Chiswell Street & the other things were sold by the said Ann Kelly , says that about three Weeks or a Months ago the said Robert Horton and this Informant stole a Quantity of wet Linen out of a house in Turk's head Court Golden Lane Which was part of it sold by one Ann Downes and one Mary says that about two Months ago the said James Rawlings and the said Robert Horton and this Informant stole two Table Cloths & some cheese out of a House the upper End of Hoxton one of which Table Cloths were sold to a Person in the Pyed Bull in Whitecross Street and the other was sent to be Sold by the said James Rawlings , says that about a fortnight ago the said Robert Horton and this Informant stole some Shoes out of a Shoemaker's Shop in St. John Street one pair of which was sold by the said Robert Horton in Rag Fair & the other pair was sold upon London Bridge by a Stranger, says that about a fortnight ago the said Robert Horton and this Informant stole a piece of Cloth near Puddle Deck which was pawned by them both for one Shilling in Fleet market

Sworn before me
Septr. 1st. 1769}

W Kelynge